

Editorial features for

International Dairy Topics

International Dairy Topics.

The targeted technical publication for progressive dairy professionals seeking the latest information from around the world

SHOWS	ISSUE	MAIN EDITORIAL THEME	OPTIONS
VIV ASIA	6.1 Jan	Optimising health & productivity Controlling metabolic and infectious diseases to keep cows healthy and productive in order to maximise milk yield.	Options for Vitamins & minerals
VIV RUSSIA	6.2 Mar	Feed, forage & nutrition efficiency Managing total nutrition in order to maximise milk yield and optimise milk quality.	Options for AI, semen & embryos
	6.3 May	Parlour management & hygiene The latest developments in cow identification, milk testing, hygiene, parlour lay out and milking equipment design.	Options for Mastitis control & teat dips
World Dairy Expo	6.4 July	Breeding & fertility efficiency Managing the breeding cycle and fertility in order to maximise annual milk yield and profitability.	Options for Hoof management
	6.5 Sept	Managing mastitis & milk testing Using antibiotics, disinfectants, vaccines and management in order to control this major 'profit robber'.	Options for Optimising the rumen
Agromek 2008	6.6 Nov	Calf & heifer management The use of nutrition, management and disease control to produce first class herd replacements.	Options for Automatic milking

DairyCowgenetics

A special section for the global dairy breeders will be launched in 2007

This will provide you with an unique opportunity to target your promotions for genetics, semen and associated services to the global commercial milk producers

Please contact Geoff Hall today (see page 2 for contact details).