

Editorial features for

International Pig Topics

International Pig Topics.

The targeted technical publication for progressive breeders and pig producers that is read and respected around the world

SHOWS	ISSUE	MAIN EDITORIAL THEME	OPTIONS
VIV ASIA	22.1 Jan	Health, nutrition &amp; vaccination Managing feeding and environment and utilising vaccination to optimise health in order to maximise herd productivity.	Options for Vaccinators & drenchers
	22.2 Mar	Breeding &amp; AI The latest developments in breeding, artificial insemination and reproductive health management.	Options for Water treatment
VIV RUSSIA	22.3 Apr	Optimising feed utilisation Making the best of the most expensive input in order to maximise pig performance and cost effectiveness.	Options for Scanners & probes
World Pork Expo	22.4 May	International Health Review The latest veterinary developments and how to utilise them on the pig farm to best effect.	Options for AI equipment
	22.5 July	International Breeder Review A practical look at pig genetics from around the world and the benefits they bring to the producer.	Options for Managing the gut
	22.6 Sept	Enteric &amp; respiratory diseases Latest developments in the diagnosis, treatment and control of today's two most important pig disease syndromes.	Options for Identification & traceability
	22.7 Oct	Feed, water &amp; air Current thinking on how to maximise performance by focusing on feed, water and ventilation.	Options for Flooring
Agromek 2008	22.8 Dec	Breeding, health &amp; biosecurity The modern approach to profitable pig production that is founded on genetics, nutrition and health.	Options for Feeders & drinkers